School report for November

1. Teachers' professional development

- a. On 7 November, more than 30 teachers from the primary and secondary sections from Hangzhou visited our school for educational exchange. They were impressed by the advanced teaching facilities in our laboratories. On the same day, they also observed a co-teaching English lesson held by Mr. Chan Ho Cheung and Ms. Sham Winnie. To facilitate exchanging ideas on teaching practices among teachers from Hong Kong and China, a short discussion was held for constructive opinions for improvements.
- b. On 9 November, all teaching staff of our school attended the Tsing Yi Joint School Staff Development Day so as to know more about the mental health of students as crisis prevention.
- c. On 15 November, Education officers and Principals from Yunfu, Guangdong Province visited our school for educational exchange. They toured the laboratories and teaching facilities with positive comments.

2. Students' all-round development

- a. On 2 November, P.1 to P.2 students participated in an activity about the safety of riding bikes. Their awareness about road safety were aroused.
- b. On 8 November, P.4 students participated in the learning activity of the Grand Opening of Sichuan in Ocean Park. They were given an opportunity to understand and value the nature and habitats of endangered species conservation. On the same day, P.5 and P.6 students took part in an event "Pandas and the World, a Closer Look at Sichuan" held by Shangri-La Hotel. All students engaged in the performances of Sichuan drama and martial art as well as the appreciation of Chinese painting.
- c. On November 10, P.3 to P.6 students visited the Legislative Council Complex. They learnt the jobs of the Legislative Councillors and the procedures of making the laws.
- d. On November 16, it was our school picnic. Students from P.1 to P.3 spent their day on Lingnan Garden while P.4 to P.6 students toured the Tai Tong Country Park. Thanks to our parents and teachers, students with the family members enjoyed in various activities arranged by the class teachers such as hiking, touring, chatting and taking photos. All participants had a great day with good laughs and memories to remember.
- e. On November 19, students joined the Kwai Chung & Tsing Yi District Culture & Art Exhibition. Our school was honoured to be invited to showcase the art work of our students to the public. On that day, students were arranged to attend the exhibition held in Tsuen Wan Cultural Hall for art work appreciation. The activity provided an opportunity for students to expand their horizons in Visual Arts, raising their awareness in creative thinking and improving their skills in appreciating art work.
- f. On November 20, P.4 to P.6 students had a science show appreciation. Students enjoyed the show very much and the interests of learning science or doing experiments aroused.

3. Parent-school cooperation

- a. On November 23, it was the Parents Day. Based on the student's report from school, parents had a detail and fruitful discussion about their child in terms of learning attitude, study routine and examination preparation skills. Parents could also visit our newly renovated special rooms for learning like Arts Room, STEM LAB and the library. On the same day, a book exhibition was held to promote reading outside classroom. Parents supported the idea by choosing the right educational CD-ROMs ,story books and non-fiction reading materials with their children.
- b. On November 23, Parent-Teacher Association had their second meeting to discuss about the annual PTA picnic.
