School report of November

1. Teachers' professional development

- a. From October 10 to November 1, Miss Tsui Chi Lai attended a programme about helping students with different learning needs.
- b. On November 7, more than 20 curriculum leaders from different primary schools and the officers from Education Bureau visited our school. They observed our lesson of the school-based curriculum and visited different spots of our school. They appreciated the design of both the curriculum and learning venues.

2. Students' all-round development

- a. On October 26, our school cooperated with Habitat for Humanity Hong Kong and held an activity of wall painting. Students and teachers from our school and voluntary workers from the organization worked together in wall painting and beautifying our school environment. Moreover, students could see different types of drawing styles and feel that art may connect people.
- b. On November 6, our school invited Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra to come to our school and give a musical performance. Through the activity, students not only could appreciate music and deepen their knowledge of music, but also could learn more about the etiquette of attending musical activities or events.
- c. On November 9, Student Environmental Protection Ambassadors from our school attend The Basic Environmental Badge (BEB) Training. The speaker shared experience in a lively and interesting way, and explored 10 environmental issues with our students.
- d. In the period from November 16 to January 31, our school holds a Visual Arts Work Exhibition Tour. Our students' work are displayed in the exhibition tour at over 10 places in the Kwai Chung & Tsing Yi District.
- e. On November 27, an English Drama Workshop was held. Students enjoyed the workshop very much. They tried on some costumes and experienced some techniques on doing dramas.

3. Parent-school cooperation

- a. Parent's Day and school picnic that were originally planned to take place on November 15 and November 22 respectively were changed in format or cancelled due to social circumstances. Class teachers talked with parents about their children's situations or progress in the aspects of habits, learning and test performance on phone.
- b. Parent-Teacher Association second meeting on November 15 would be rescheduled.
