School report, January

1. Teachers' professional development

- a. From 5th to 20th January, Ms. Lam Wai Yan attended the Special Course on "Supporting the Cognitive and Learning Needs of Students with Special Educational Needs" to explore in depth and identify the learning characteristics of students with "cognitive and learning needs" and support strategies to benefit these students and other students.
- b. On 17th January, Mr. Ng, the Mathematics Consultant of our school and former School Development Officer of the Education Bureau's Primary School-based Curriculum Development Section, visited our school to launch this year's "School-based Mathematics Textbook Development Project". He held meetings and prepared lessons with Grade 6 mathematics teachers and provided many valuable suggestions for their teaching.

2. Students' all-round development

- a. The art works of our students have always been appreciated and approved by the public in Tsing Yi District. Roving Art Exhibition of our school was arranged starting from 13/1 to 5/2 in Maritime Square. The talents and outcomes of our students would be showcased. The students' art works would be exhibited at Tsuen Wan Town Hall afterward.
- b. In order to enhance students' self-confidence, communication and collaboration skills, the School organized a "Challenging Day Camp" for UAP P4 members on 14th January. Students participated in various challenging activities throughout the day to enhance their resilience and learn collaborative and problem-solving skills.
- c. On 17th January, the school organised an interactive anti-drug educational play. The lively and interesting drama activities helped plant the drug-awareness message from an early age. Students could learn the skills of resisting temptation and understand the dangers of drug abuse.

3. Home-school cooperation

- a. The school participated in the "Cleaning Charity Fundraising Activity" organized by the Community Chest, raising a total of 6312 dollars.
- b. On 16th January, our school held a charity flower sale for the Charity Year of Youth League. Many students and their parents supported the activity, raising a total of 6650 dollars.

The school would like to congratulate the above students who have achieved excellent results in various competitions. As the Lunar New Year holiday is approaching, I hope that while enjoying this universal celebration and gathering with family and friends, you will also review your performance in last semester's examinations and make plans to enhance your academic abilities. The school would like to wish all parents and students progress and good health in the Year of the Rabbit!
