Circular 22-130/J07

10th March, 2023

Dear Parents,

Circular on The Outstanding Student Award Scheme 2022

In order to cultivate students' positive character and strengths, to enhance their academic studies, morality and service, and face challenges with a positive attitude, the "Outstanding Student Award Scheme 2022" is now on trial. Through the eClass platform, students can conduct the challenging tasks and earn award credits by themselves. The higher points means students have progressed in academic studies, morality and service. In addition, the school understands that parent-school cooperation is very important, so when students are performing tasks, parents can go to the "eClass App" to check your children's completion of tasks and understand your children's performance in school. If the task points in the list have reached the standard and the teacher's approval is displayed, it means that the student has done well at the task; if the task points have not reached the standard and there is no teacher's approval, it means that the student needs to improve, parents can pay more attention and encourage your children. At the same time, parents can discuss some goals with your children and move forward together. The details are as below:
